John Mangos sings for the Sydney Children's Hospital, Randwick on Channel Seven's "It Takes Two"

Last night John Mangos made his premiere on the Channel Seven program "It Takes Two", singing for his nominated charity, Sydney Children's Hospital, Randwick. John will step outside his comfort zone as a Sky News anchor on Tuesday nights at 7.30pm to sing his heart out with singing partner Wendy Matthews.

Each week John will compete against other celebrity singers to remain in the competition through audience voting via telephone or SMS.

Keep John in the competition and support Sydney Children's Hospital by voting for him. Voting lines open after the show broadcast on 12 February.
