

MEDIA RELEASE
10 May 2010

The 4th Annual Comedy for Kids raises $100,000 for *Sydney Children's Hospital, Randwick

The 4th annual Comedy for Kids, which was held on 7 May at UNSW Roundhouse, featured one of the UK's top comedians Gina Yashere, popular Australian comedy band, Axis of Awesome and up and coming comedian Steve Philip. This sold out night raised an impressive $100,000 to support the Emergency Department at Sydney Children's Hospital, Randwick.

Over 500 guests enjoyed a gourmet BBQ cooked up by Bondi Rescue stars and then settled down to an evening of great comedy and fun. The fundraising was kicked off thanks to the generosity of the AJC which generously donated $40,000 to the Hospital, and the raffle, auctions and donations on the night helped bring in the exciting total.

Comedy for Kids was instigated by Peter Wilson, Clinton Carle and Erik De Haart in 2007, and since then thanks to the support of the Comedy for Kids Committee, it has raised more than $109,000 for sick and injured children cared for at the Emergency Department at Sydney Children's Hospital.

For more media information please contact:

Kate Meikle
Sydney Children's Hospital Foundation
Ph: 9382 1188 or email kate.meikle@schf.org.au